4. William A. Kats in the office of Representative Wint Smith (Kansas) inquired if we had any information concerning the publication THIS IS KHRUSHCHEV put out by the United States Government Advertiser, Inc. I told him it was doubtful we would have information on this subject since it was not within our jurisdiction but I would look into the matter and advise.

5. Senator Henry M. Jackson (D., Wash.) telephoned to state that he had made arrangements to be present at the meeting of members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee with Khrushchev. He had prepared a further letter concerning his proposed travel into Russia and hoped to deliver it at this time. He again was asking for any other ideas. I suggested that he might wish to raise this question with Khrushchev in the presence of newsmen and he might also try other members of the Khrushchev entourage. He indicated that as soon as he received any word on this he would let us know through Dorothy Fiedick who will remain here while he goes to Seattle because he certainly wished to receive a careful briefing from us and would need to make arrangements for meeting [ ]
